

APPLICATION PROCESS

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the O'Fallon Police Department!

ALL CANDIDATES MUST COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING

- Completed Application
- Resume with cover letter
- Waiver and Release of Liability

Applicants may submit completed materials in any of the following manners:

- Mailed to the O'Fallon Police Department, 285 N. Seven Hills Rd O'Fallon, IL 62269
- Delivered in person to the O'Fallon Police Department
- Emailed to applications@wearthebadge.com

Completed application materials will be provided to the department's Recruitment Committee and the city's Human Resource Department for review. Each submission will be reviewed individually and on its own merits. Only submissions containing all completely filled out required documents will be considered. Applicants will also undergo a pre-screening of their background. Applicants meeting the expectations for the position of police officer will be invited to participate in the selection process.

Applicants who are currently or formerly a certified law enforcement officer will participate in the same process as other applicants. Applicants with qualifying law enforcement experience, as defined by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, are eligible for certain incentives upon hire.

The City of O'Fallon is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate based on age, race, color, religion, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, or any other non-merit factor.

GENERAL POLICE DEPARTMENT INFORMATION

The O'Fallon Police Department is comprised of fifty sworn officers, six community service officers, and seven full time support staff. We are home to the MetroEast Consolidated Communications center (MECOMM) which provides 9-1-1 and dispatch services for the O'Fallon, Shiloh, and Fairview Heights police departments. Core services provided by the department include uniformed patrol operations, traffic enforcement, traffic crash investigation, and criminal investigations. We provide one full-time School Resource Officer to O'Fallon Township High School. In addition, the police department assigns officers to several specialized multi-jurisdictional units including, the DEA task force, MEGSI (drug task force), The Major Case Squad of Greater St. Louis, Child Death Task Force, ILEAS Mobile Field Force and ILEAS WMD (S.W.A.T.) Team.

POLICE CHIEF'S MESSAGE

Welcome, and thank you for expressing your interest in becoming an O'Fallon Police Officer. As an officer for over 25 years in O'Fallon, it has been the greatest honor of my life to serve this community.

When you join the O'Fallon Police Department, you will have the full support of the community, the city government, and the administration to do your job with honor and integrity. We will provide you with the tools you need to be successful both on and off the job; we want you to be a hero on the street, and a hero at home with your family and friends. Hence, we place a strong emphasis on both the physical and mental wellness for our officers. To support these efforts, we have a variety of programs including a peer support team, fitness facilities, a chaplain program, and a spouse's group. A departmental wellness app helps bring our programs together by providing 24/7 access to these resources from your smartphone. We understand you will have a lifetime after your career here, and we want that life to be full of purpose and satisfaction.

Our mission at OPD is simple; We are dedicated to proactively solving problems and protecting life and property through education, prevention, and enforcement. In striving to accomplish this mission, service to community is our commitment, honor, and integrity our mandate.

This statement is a roadmap to your success at the O'Fallon Police Department. Every day you put on our uniform; you have an opportunity to make a difference in someone's life. You have the privilege, and responsibility, to show people what fair and professional policing looks like. We are leaders in local law enforcement, and we need people with drive and determination to help us continue that legacy.

As you may have seen on our website or social media posts, we are committed to being involved and engaged in our community. Here at the O'Fallon Police Department, community policing is not a program but a way of doing business. We expect our officers to be engaged with our residents and businesses. We expect them to be great communicators and problem solvers. We give our officers the autonomy and discretion to police our community the right way.

We need people ready to commit themselves to a career with purpose; a career dedicated to service and dedicated to excellence. If you are that person, I look forward to meeting you and welcoming you into the O'Fallon Police Department family.

Kirk Brueggeman
Chief of Police
